Information

In the LOVE VET project a transfer meeting with workshop was realized at the Polo tecnico professionale di Lugo/Italy, May 10th -May 11th 2017.

During the meeting the participants (teachers of the school and advisors of companies) were informed about the LOVE VET project and the idea of a new teaching and learning cultur (competence based, individualized, using e-learning tools, ...).

In the workshop the participants worked on following topics.

- Finding a common understanding of a new teaching and learning cultur
- Creating of competence grids in relation to the context of school
- Handling of the COMET-tool (edustandards.org)
- Developing of tasks linked to the competence grids
- Using the eLOVE application (generally and in relation to the context of school)
- Realisation of cooperation of VET school and companies (e.g. internships of students in companies) in order to work together on the development of the competences of students.
